It makes even his political compatriots smile to read such language as, "blatant demagogues and wind-bags who care for nothing but 'pie'," in Samuel Randolph Smith's paper. The flawless nicety with which the language applies to the editor of that paper mskes the matter highly humorous

Ex-GOVERNOR ALTGELD, the Illinois high priest of Bryanism, is more outspoken than his chief on the question of paper money, for he says plainly that "both gold and silver will pass out of use as money and be supplemented by a philosophic or rational circulating medium and measure of value." Mr. Bryan has never yet been committed to an expression in favor of unlimited greenbacks, but it is not certain that he and many other devotees of "Coin" Harvey do not hold similar views to Governor Altgeld, although they are not so impolitic as to as to make them public at this time. The step from the position of the extreme Bryanites to that occupied by Mr. Altgeld, namely, that of absolute fiat money, is not a long or illogical one.

THE anti-imperialist propaganda obviously states that it will attempt to catch the labor vote by showing that himself. Its Special Farmers' Institute editions, issued with the regular edition the first week in each month, have been for years blood and strong nerves and build up your the admiration of all practical farmers. Written wholly by farmers, they are full McConnell & Berry. of actual experience and smell of the soil. We have been fortunate enough this season to secure terms for The Homestead and its Special Farmers' Institute editions, together with The Poultry Farmer and The Farmers' Mutual Insurance Journal, four of the most valuable farm publications in the country, that enable us to offer the four in connection with our own paper for $1.25 for the entire five, one year. This is emphatically a good thing, and no farmer in this county should fail to take advantage of the offer. For a large line of thoroughly practical farm reading nothing has ever been offered before that equals it. A county paper, a farm paper, a poultry paper, a farm insurance paper and the Special Farmers' Institute, all for $1 25. Come in and order them.
